Note:

1. The Classification of the Telecommunications Standards is based on the document “International Classification for Standards” (2001) published by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO).
2. To indicate the degree of equivalence between the HKTA standards and relevant international standards, the convention specified by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) and the International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC) in ISO/IEC Guide 21-1999 “Adoption of International Standards as regional or national standards” is used. The following abbreviations defined by the ISO/IEC stand for —

IDT — identical
MOD — modified
NEQ — not equivalent

Please refer to the document for further details.
3. The method of indicating the progress of standardization is based on the document “International Harmonized Stage Code System for the Development of Standards” (1994) published by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO).
