

TOLL FREE CODES AND NUMBERS⁴

The following toll-free codes and numbers shall be used as free access codes and numbers in private payphones with effect from 1 January 1999. Payphone Service Providers (PSPs) should arrange to implement the revised free access codes and numbers in their payphones by 1 February 1999.

Leading Digits	Min -Max Digit Length	Remarks
999	3-3	3-digit code for emergency voice call to police
992	3-3	3-digit code for emergency fax call to police (if fax is supported by the payphone)
800	9-9	3-digit prefix with a total of 9 digits for freephone service
001 800 002 800 006 800 007 800 008 800 009 800	14-14	6-digit prefix with a total of 14 digits for universal freephone service
1081 1083 1088	4-4	4-digit codes for directory enquiry service provided by the FTNS operator which provides for the access line to the payphone
operator	-	codes/numbers which may be provided by the PSP for access to the operator service of the FTNS operator which provides the access line to the payphone or other operator service

- END -

⁴ The Telecommunications Authority would publish revision to this Schedule, if any, normally on or before 1 January of each calendar year.