

CUSTOMER COMPLAINT
SETTLEMENT SCHEME
FOR THE TELECOMMUNICATIONS INDUSTRY
電訊業的解決顧客投訴計劃

WHAT IS CCSS?

The “Customer Complaint Settlement Scheme” (CCSS) is a mediation scheme set up by the telecommunications industry to help resolve billing disputes in deadlock between telecommunications service providers and their customers.

The mediation service is provided by an agency (CCSS Agent) set up under the Communications Association of Hong Kong (CAHK), an industry association representing the communications sector in Hong Kong. Customers who choose to use the mediation service under the CCSS may first contact the Office of the Communications Authority (OFCA) which will assess the cases. OFCA will refer accepted cases to the CCSS Agent for further handling.

WHAT IS MEDIATION?

Mediation helps resolve disputes between parties without involving legal formality and expensive legal cost. Mediation service under the CCSS is provided by independent and trained mediators, through telephone, electronic means or face-to-face meetings, to assist the concerned parties to identify the issues in dispute, their respective positions and expectations; to facilitate the negotiation; to formulate a solution; and ultimately to reach a settlement agreement regarding the resolution of the whole, or part, of the dispute.

ADVANTAGES OF MEDIATION:

WHICH SERVICE PROVIDERS PARTICIPATE IN THE CCSS?

All major telecommunications service providers in Hong Kong have participated in the CCSS. A list of the CCSS Members is available at the CCSS website at <https://ccss.cahk.hk>.

WHAT IS THE SCOPE OF MEDIATION?

Mediation service under the CCSS is limited to billing disputes between the telecommunications service providers participating in the CCSS (CCSS Members) and their customers. Billing dispute arises when a customer disagrees with the amount shown on the bill issued by a CCSS Member. Some examples of billing disputes are given below:

a charge for something that is not subscribed to or accepted on delivery

a charge for an amount that is different from the charge specified under the contract

a charge entered on a date different from the service commencement or consumption date

a bill failing to show a payment, rebate, or other credit to the customer's account

Not all billing disputes fall under CCSS's purview. For example, a dispute arising from the quality of the service or the level of charges explicitly stated in the contract will be outside the scope of the CCSS.

BILLING DISPUTES ELIGIBLE FOR ACCEPTANCE UNDER THE CCSS

Billing disputes falling within the scope of CCSS and meeting all of the following conditions are eligible for acceptance under the CCSS:

you are using a telecommunications service from a CCSS Member for personal and/or residential use the amount in dispute is not less than HK$300

you have lodged the complaint within 18 months from occurrence of the event triggering the dispute with the CCSS Member via the designated channel(s) and a deadlock is reached

A deadlock means a situation either:

- where the CCSS Member has notified you that it could not settle the billing dispute with you, or
- where more than 6 weeks have passed since you have first complained to the CCSS Member and you consider that it is not possible to settle the dispute with the CCSS Member
