ANNEX 1

Services

Service Description

The Services relate to the provision of originating, terminating or transiting services for local telephone calls within Hong Kong by one Party's fixed network to the other Party's fixed network, including their customers' and Services-Based Operator ("SBO") networks directly connected to the Parties. Such Services may by agreement be provided directly or indirectly on a transiting basis.

For the purpose of this Agreement,

"FNO" means a fixed network operator in Hong Kong which provides telecommunications services between fixed points.

"Local Interconnect Charges" or "LIC" means those charges agreed between the Parties to be imposed for the handling of local telephone calls originating and terminating at their respective fixed telecommunications networks, including their customers' networks and any SBO networks directly connected to the Parties, within Hong Kong under this Agreement and as set out in Annex 2.

"Occupancy Minute" means the duration in relation to a call between the time of seizure of a circuit in a Party's interconnect gateway exchange or local exchange which is connected to the other Party's interconnect gateway exchange or local exchange or an exchange in a relevant third party's network (as applicable) until that circuit is released at the relevant exchange.

ANNEX 3

Call Types & Payment of Charges

In this Annex, all LIC refer to the rates shown in Annex 2.

1. Call Origination (Direct) – Terminating Access Charge

1.1 The call originates from a customer of FNO(A) who makes a call to customer in the network of FNO(B).

1.2 FNO(A) and FNO(B) will be subject to the LIC shown in Annex 2 if they are each a Party to this Agreement.

1.3 LIC will be payable as follows:

FNO(A) pays FNO(B) the Terminating Access Charge.

CONFIDENTIAL

2. Call Origination (Direct) – Originating Access Charge

2.1 The call originates from a customer of FNO(A) who makes use of the value added service (“VAS”) provided by the VAS Provider hosted by FNO(B). For the avoidance of doubt, VAS includes number levels of “Auto Paging 7x”, “Freephone 800x & Network Number”, “Information Service 900x & Network Number” and “VAS 30(0-4) & Network Number”.

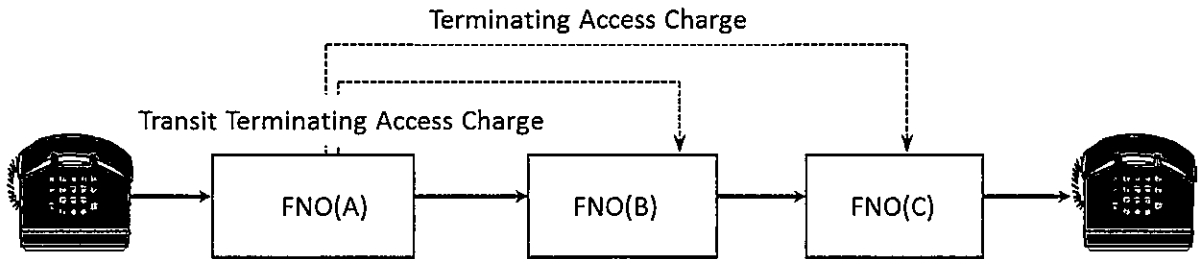

2.2 FNO(A) and FNO(B) will be subject to the LIC shown in Annex 2 if they are each a Party to this Agreement.

2.3 LIC will be payable as follows:

FNO(B) pays FNO(A) the Originating Access Charge.

CONFIDENTIAL

3. Call Origination (Transit) - Transit Terminating Access Charge

3.1 The call originates from a customer of FNO(A) to a customer of FNO(C) via the fixed network of FNO(B).

3.2 Each of FNO(A), FNO(B) and FNO(C) will be subject to the LIC shown in Annex 2 to the extent that each is a Party to this Agreement in respect of each other Party to this Agreement.

3.3 LIC will be payable as follows:

- (i) FNO(A) pays FNO(C) the Terminating Access Charge.
- (ii) FNO(A) pays FNO(B) the Transit Terminating Access Charge. However, if FNO(B) is an Appointed Transit Network Operator of FNO(C), then the Transit Terminating Access Charge in this call scenario will be waived by FNO(B). For avoidance of doubt, a Party shall update the other Party from time to time by no less than 30 days' advance written notice the list of FNOs of whom the Party is the Assigned Transiting Network Operator, Annex 4 shows the latest list as of the date of this Agreement.
- (iii) In case there is more than one transit fixed network involved in delivering the call, each transit fixed network pays the next transit fixed network the Transit Terminating Access Charge.

CONFIDENTIAL

4. Call Origination (Transit) – Transit Originating Access Charge

- 4.1 The call originates from a customer of FNO(A) to access the VAS service provided by the VAS Provider hosted by FNO(C) via the fixed network of FNO(B).
- 4.2 Each of FNO(A), FNO(B) and FNO(C) will be subject to LIC as shown in Annex 2 to the extent that each is a Party to this Agreement in respect of each other Party to this Agreement.
- 4.3 LIC will be payable as follows:
- (i) FNO(C) pays FNO(A) the Originating Access Charge.
 - (ii) FNO(A) pays FNO(B) the Transit Originating Access Charge. However, if FNO(B) is an Appointed Transit Network Operator of FNO(C), then the Transit Originating Access Charge in this call scenario will be waived by FNO(B). For avoidance of doubt, a Party shall update the other Party from time to time by no less than 30 days' advance written notice the list of FNOs of whom the Party is the Assigned Transiting Network Operator, Annex 4 shows the latest list as of the date of this Agreement.
 - (iii) In case there is more than one transit fixed network involved in delivering the call, each transit fixed network pays the next transit fixed network the Transit Originating Access Charge.
